GET READY FOR "FLU"

Keep Your Liver Active, Your System Purified and Free From Colds by Taking Calotabs, the Nauseless Calomel Tablets, that are Delightful, Safe and Sure.

Physicians and Druggists are advising their friends to keep their systems purified and their organs in perfect working order as a protection against the return of influenza. They know that a clogged up system and a lazy liver favor colds, influenza and serious complications.

To cut short a cold overnight and to prevent serious complications take one Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, no griping, no sickening after effects. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified and refreshed and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please—no danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Every druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not perfectly delighted with Calotabs.—(Adv.)

LONE ELM

School is progressing nicely at present.

Several from this community attended the baptizing at Mountain Home Sunday.

Estel Stockton and Spencer Smith visited the latter's home folks Friday and Saturday night, and attended the song convention at Calton Sunday.

The spelling at Willow Branch was very good Wednesday night.

There will be church at Lone Elm Saturday and Sunday. The pulpit will be occupied by Rev. Melvin Henson of near Purdy.

The sale at R. D. Bolins was well attended last Saturday. Every thing sold very well. T. A. Stockton was the auctioneer.

A farewell party was given at R. D. Bolins Saturday night. A nice crowd was present.

Spencer Smith and Esther Stockton attended church at the Henderson Mines Friday night.

Tom Baze has been down in Arkansas looking at his farm.

"Squirrel Killing" would be a very profitable occupation down here, as the squirrels are plentiful.

T. A. Stockton is moving some of his feed to his farm near Cassville.

Mrs. J. Q. Williams is on the sick list at present.

George Zinn called on Mrs. Maud Reed last Sunday.

The singing at Jenkins was not very well attended Sunday night because of the meeting at Mountain Home.

The squirrel as he gathers his food in for the winter is kept very busy at present as he sees winter approaching he is aware of the fact that now is the time for him to get busy if he has any thing to eat this winter—So are the farmers of the Lone Elm community. They are all very busy gathering in their winters feed, so that winter, when she comes will find them ready for her with corn in the crib, meat, pumpkins, apples and all kinds of fruit in the cellar and a good warm fire with plenty of wood to sit by. "Country Life."

MRS TRAUGHBER WRITES TO OLD FRIENDS

Mrs. H. C. Traughber, who recently moved to Idaho Falls, Idaho, writes to The Times as follows:

Thinking perhaps our Monett friends would like to know how we are getting along, will say we celebrated our fiftieth anniversary October 5 with a turkey dinner. Three of our children and families and grand-daughter and family, as well as others, were present. We had a fine time and received some lovely presents.

We like Idaho fine and are in our new home getting ready for winter. Should any of our friends come here, just come to 239 Third street, Idaho Falls. The latch string hangs on the outside. Pull it and come in.

MURMURS FROM THE PRAIRIE

Miss Elsie Dummit has gone to Oklahoma to work with her sister, Mrs. Brendlinger, in millinery and dress making.

Rev Wilson preached at the Union church last Sunday morning and evening. There was a good attendance and all enjoyed hearing Brother Wilson as usual.

Howard Dummit wife and little daughter are visiting a few weeks with Mrs. Dummit's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Dummit.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Miller and daughter Etta May visited at Mrs. Millers parent's home Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. F. A. Cornell has returned home from South Dakota where she has been for four weeks caring for her sister Mrs. T. A. Thorntson who has been very sick. Last report she is much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jackson and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Jackson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lowder of Pioneer. We understand there was a family reunion, all the children home but one. It is needless to say they had a royal good time.

Dr. Russell has bought a 40-acre farm of F. R. Dummit. It takes in the Elmer Dummit place. We welcome them and hope they will decide to move to the Prairie some time in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Cornell took in the singing at Calton, Sunday afternoon.

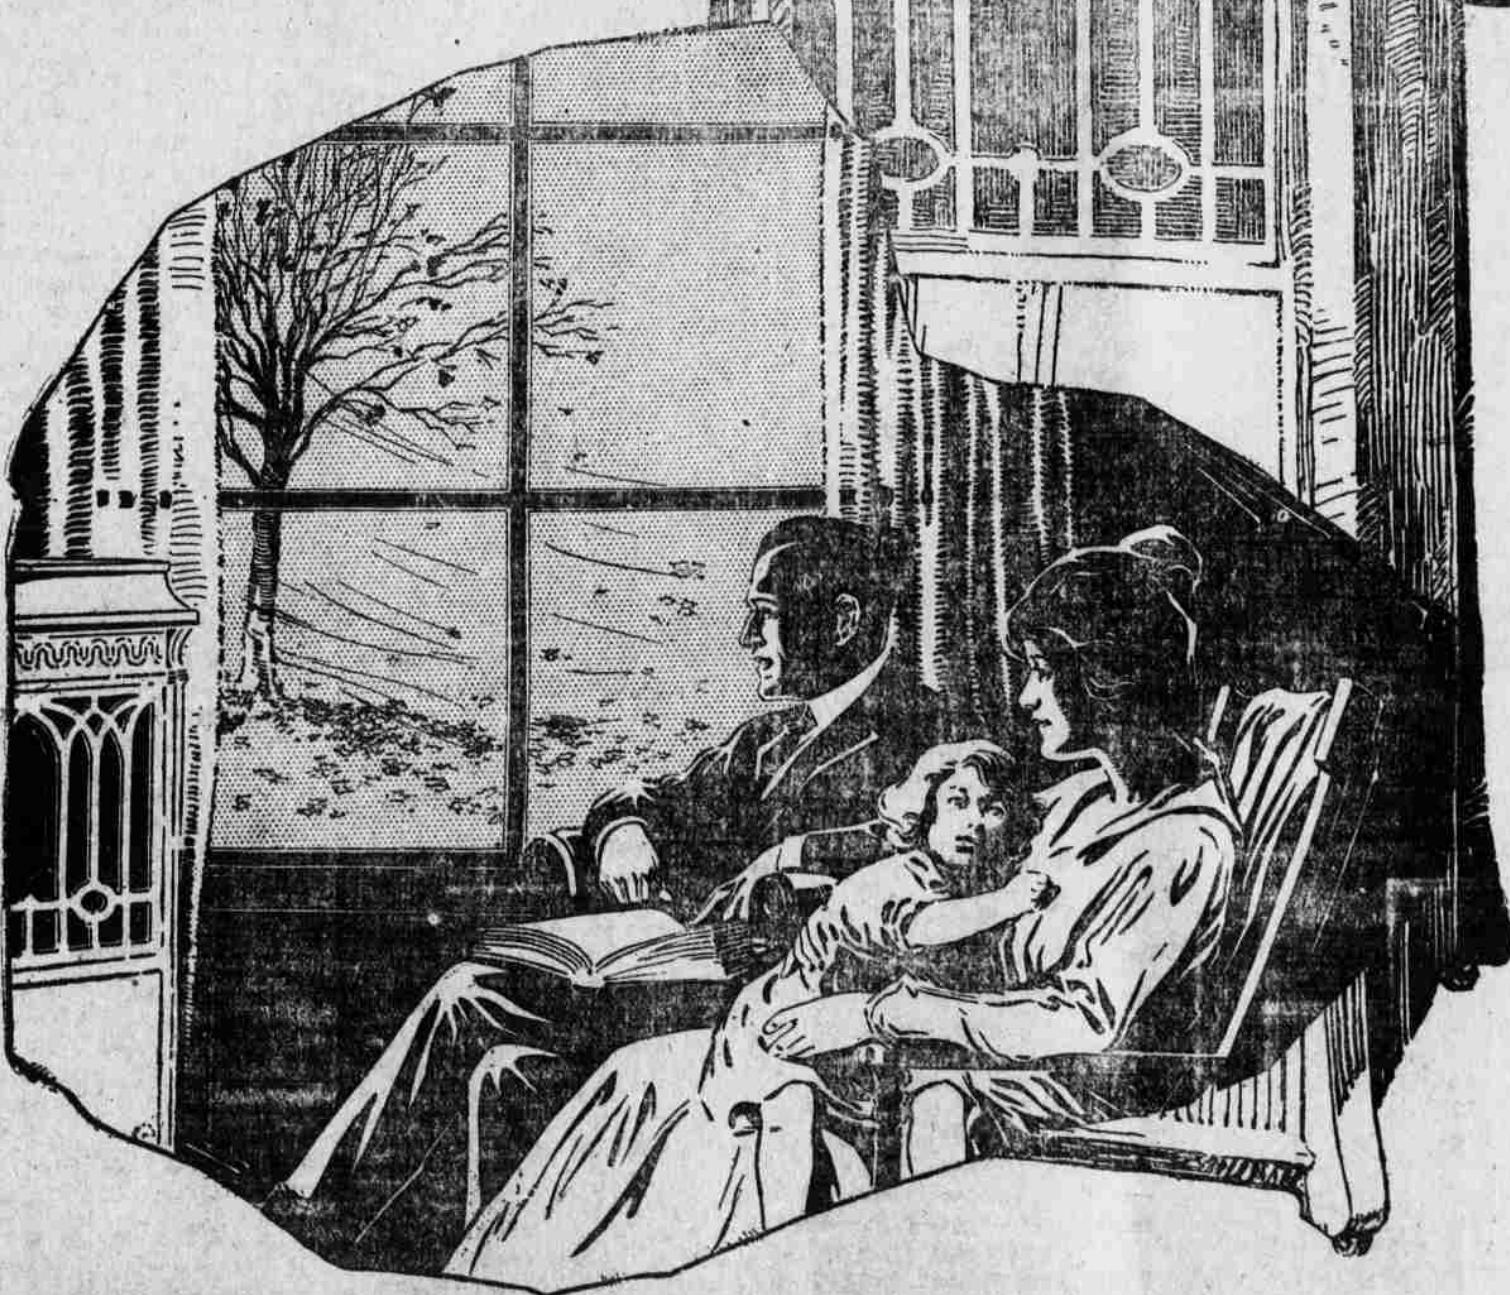

W. H. Carlin's little daughter Maxine, of south of town, is ill with scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Rounds, of Muskogee, Okla., are visiting relatives and friends in the city.

The change to colder weather is indicated by the number of men going home with stovepipe under their arm or carrying an oil heater.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lehnard, Mrs. George Morrow and Miss Dorothy Morrow motored to Neosho, Sunday. Mrs. Morrow's sister Mrs. Fred Hubbert, who had been visiting here, returned home with them.

A Small Payment Brings The New Edison to Your Home

YES, on this offer, you can see for yourself how The NEW EDISON will cheer the melancholy days. We'll send it to your home at once if you will make a small first payment. After enjoying the music of The New Edison for a whole month, start paying for it on such easy monthly terms that you won't even miss the money. Investigate this special offer.

Mr. Edison's Favorite Invention

The genius of Thomas A. Edison has given you electric light, the "movies" and a score of human benefits. But he himself says the New Edison is his favorite. For years he has toiled, night and day, taking little time for sleep, until he was ready to pronounce his phonograph "perfect." But when, at last, he did give the New Edison to the world, everyone said, "Real Music at Last!" True to life—just as if the living singer or player sang from the cabinet! Now, on our liberal offer, you need not be satisfied with anything less than Mr. Edison's genuine instrument.

The NEW EDISON

No Needles to Change
Even records of all other makes sound more human when played on The New Edison

Mr. Edison's wonderful phonograph with the diamond reproducer is indeed the king of home entertainers. It puts the whole world of music at your command. It brings cheer to the home for every hour and every mood. There is no end of the variety—from comic dialogues to sacred hymns, from vaudeville to Grand Opera, brass bands, waltzes, two-steps, organ, quartettes, concerts, etc.

Minstrel shows, quartettes, full choirs, cathedral music, foreign records, Chinese bands, tambourine pieces, trombone concerts, piano, violin, flute, cello and the most wonderful dance music that you ever listened to.

No home need be without the New Edison now that we make this special offer by which you scarcely feel the expense.

Come In — Select Your Outfit NOW!

Bring your family, if you wish. Hear the New Edison. Find out more about our offer. Arrange to have an instrument in your home tomorrow on our liberal plan.
